

Kimberly Barron-Brown

713-313-7655

Kimberly.Barron-Brown@tsu.edu

---

Education:

Texas Southern University, Houston, Texas

M.A. English, 2003

Thesis: "Nella Larsen's Passing: The Themes of Passing and the Tragic Mulatto"

Texas Southern University, Houston, Texas

B.A. English, 2001

Teaching Experience:

Visiting Instructor, Texas Southern University, fall 2003 - present

English 130: Developmental English

English 131/1301: Freshman English

English 132/1302: Freshman English II

English 230/2332: World Literature I

English 231/2333: World Literature II

English 235/2328: American Literature - (Web Enhanced Course/Blackboard)

English 244/2326: African American Literature

Graduate Assistant, Texas Southern University, fall 2001-spring 2003

Research Interests:

Composition Studies

Educational Leadership in Higher Ed

Literature of the Harlem Renaissance

Film Studies

Twentieth Century American Literature

Short Fiction

Honors and Awards:

Outstanding Academic Instructional Support, TSU Upward Bound, summer 2002

J. McCleary Graduate Scholarship Recipient, spring 2003

Outstanding Academic Instructional Support, TSU Upward Bound, summer 2004

Professional Membership:

National Council of Teachers

College Language Association

Modern Language Association

Departmental Services:

UAV/QEP Pilot Program for English 131, Texas Southern University, fall 2011

Co-Chair, Freshman Composition Committee, 2014 - 2018

Fresh Start Initiative (FSI), Texas Southern University, spring 2021-present

Billy Joe Turner Symposium Committee, spring 2022

Certifications:

Texas Southern University: Online Teaching Certification – August 2020 - Present