

Texas Southern University
University Testing Center (UTC) Rules and Regulations

- I understand that I must present a valid, unexpired government-issued ID with a recognizable photo to complete a test offering. High School IDs are accepted only for Texas Success Initiative Assessment 2.0 for those currently enrolled or recent graduate.
- I understand that for test security, the University Testing Center may scan or inspect items using a metal detector.
- I understand that my ID must remain face-up on my desk during the entire test session.
- I understand that I may not access any personal items during the exam. This includes (but not limited to) cell phones, electronics, study materials, books, notes, gum, food, drinks or tobacco products. Possession of such items may result in dismissal from the test and cancellation of scores.
- I understand that unauthorized items such as hats, headscarves, outerwear, and large jewelry must be removed and stored in a locker.
- I understand that eating, drinking, smoking, chewing gum, and creating noise or disturbances during the exam are strictly prohibited.
- I understand that scratch paper, calculators, and No. 2 pencils will be provided, if required. No outside materials are allowed unless approved under ADA Accommodations.
- I understand that Test Administrators are responsible for maintaining a secure testing environment, and I agree to follow all oral and written instructions provided.
- I agree not to communicate with other examinees during the test and will not behave in any way that disrupts or affects the performance of others.
- I understand that all testing fees are non-refundable and non-transferable.
- I understand that lockers are limited and used at my own risk. The Texas Southern University Testing Center is not responsible for any items stored in lockers.
- I understand that failure to follow the Texas Southern University Testing Center Rules and Regulations may result in dismissal from the test session, cancellation of my scores, and no refund will be issued.
